

Art highlights

How to use the listings

Exhibitions are arranged by closing date. All events are free unless otherwise noted. For more exhibitions and venues, see www.timeoutsingapore.com/art

Anna Navasardian: Kids

Until 12 May

The young Armenia-born, America-based artist shows her life-sized portraits, created from lengthy sessions with her subjects.

Michael Janssen Gallery #02-21 Gillman Barracks, 9 Lock Rd (6734 8948, www.facebook.com/galerimichaeljanssensingapore). Labrador Park. Tue-Sat noon-7pm; Sun noon-6pm.

Yang Fudong: Yejiang (The Nightman Cometh)

Until 16 May

The contemporary Chinese video artist makes his debut in Singapore with this show, portraying black and white stills of the eponymous film, whose title means 'nightfall is imminent' or 'the Night General'.

ShanghART #02-22 Gillman Barracks, 9 Lock Rd (6734 9537, www.shanghARTgallery.com). Labrador Park. Tue-Sat noon-7pm; Sun noon-6pm.

Nyein Chan Su: Memories for the Future

Until 19 May

The paintings by the Burmese artists depict the protests and expectations of Myanmar's muted population as the country opens up.

Société Générale Gallery Level 2, Alliance Française de Singapour, 1 Sarkies Rd (6833 9314, www.alliancefrancaise.org.sg). Newton. Mon-Fri 11am-7pm; Sat 11am-5pm.

Nyugen Tuan & Naoko Tosa: Vision

Until 19 May

Works by Vietnamese sculptor Tuan and Japanese media artist Tosa are jointly displayed here, and while their styles and techniques differ, they do find common ground in their search for happiness and inner peace.

Museum of Art and Design #03-01 Mandarin Gallery, 333A Orchard Rd (6734 5688, madnad.com.sg). Somerset. Daily 11am-9pm.

Zoological

Until 19 May

This show features photographs, videos and installations by local and regional artists – including Ang Soo Nian, Heman Chong, John Clang and Zhao Renhui – that explore our impact on the urban landscape.

2902 Gallery 222 Queen St (6339 8655, www.2902gallery.com). Bras Basah. Tue-Sun noon-7pm.

Justin Loke: The Seven Scenes of Barry Lyndon

Until 20 May

The local artist's newest installation features paintings based on scenes from the 1975 Stanley Kubrick film. To complement the show, the exhibition space will also be transformed to reflect the scenes depicted in the works.

Objectifs 56A Arab St (6293 9782, www.objectifs.com.sg). Bugis. Mon-Fri 11am-7pm; Sat noon-6pm.

Bary Cha Cha: Still Life 'Organica'

Until 20 May

The local photographer presents seven nature-themed works from his ongoing series, plus a series of still life installations.

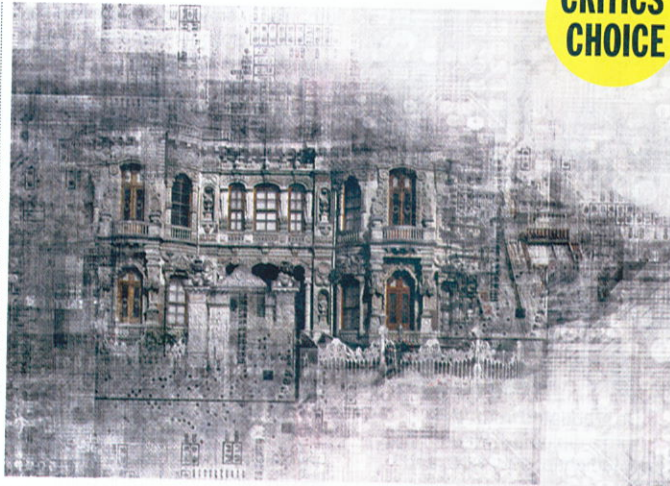

Art Forum 82 Cairnhill Rd (6737 3448, www.artforum.com.sg). Newton. Mon-Sat 10am-6pm.

Thukral & Tagra: Windows of Opportunity

Until 25 May

The Indian artist duo's latest works explore the younger generation's hope to escape from India and the challenges they face abroad.

Art Plural 38 Armenian St (6636 8360, www.artpluralgallery.com). City Hall. Mon-Sat 11am-7pm.

CRITICS' CHOICE

David Kelly: Laye

Until 1 Jun

Moving away from his art shows, ReDot pres landscape paintings by artist David Kelly.

ReDot Fine Art Gal Pagar Distripark, 391 www.redotgallery.com. Tue-Sat noon-7pm.

Wyn-Lyn Tan: Sile Mountain

Until 2 Jun

The local artist shows acrylic paintings and is inspired by her expeditions to the Arctic, capturing the beauty of nature.

FOST Gallery #01-02 Lock Rd (6694 3080, www.fostgallery.com). Labrador Park. Tue 11am-6pm. Mon open.

Ye Shufang: The L Perishables and O

Until 2 Jun

The local artists, who is food art, displays new agar-agar (seaweed gel).

The Private Museum St (6738 2872, www.themuseum.com.sg). Bras Basah. Mon-Fri Sat, Sun & public holidays.

Young Blood

17 May-2 Jun

Works by seven up-and-coming artists from all over the world: group exhibition, which includes photographs, oils and watercolors.

Opera Gallery #03-05 Orchard Turn (6735 2100, www.opera.com.sg). Orchard. Daily 11am-7pm.

Yeesoonyung: Flar

3 May-15 Jun

The Korean artist makes Singapore with a series of scroll paintings and prints.

Ota Fine Arts #01-23 Malan Rd (6694 3071, www.otafinearts.com.sg). Labrador Park. Tue-Sat noon-6pm.

Joan Vennum: The S

3 May-23 Jun

The New York-based artist her colourful, ethereal calligraphic paintings inspired by traditional Chinese ink wash.

Sundaram Tagore Gal Barracks, 5 Lock Rd (663 9999, www.sundaramtagore.com). Tue-Sat 11am-7pm; Sun 10am-6pm.

Cheong Kwang Ho: Sculptures

4 May-29 Jun

The Korean artist makes works with a collection of his art created by soldering thin copper wires into simple but intricate motifs such as pots, flowers, fish and leaves.

Galerie Steph #01-05 Distripark, 39 Keppel Rd (663 9999, www.galeriesteph.com). Tanjong Pagar. Mon-Fri 11am-7pm; Sun by appointment.

Rodel Tapaya: The L Somewhere

Until 30 Jun

The Filipino artist again in the myths and history of his country.

ARNDT #01-35 Gillman Barracks, 6 Lock Rd (6694 3071, www.arn.net.sg). Labrador Park. Wed-Sat 11am-6pm.

Luciano Ventrone: Si

Until 2 July

More than 50 paintings by the figurative artist are displayed in life pieces as well as portraits.

Partners & Mucciaccia Barracks, 6 Lock Rd (6694 3071, www.partnersandmucciaccia.com). Labrador Park. Tue-Sat noon-7pm; Sun 11am-6pm.

Young Blood

17 May-2 Jun Opera Gallery

Here's your chance to see works by some major emerging talents from all over the world, with artists hailing from America, the UK, Germany, Istanbul (such as Ali Alistir, pictured) and beyond.

Cheong Kwang Ho: The Treachery of Sculptures

4 May-29 Jun Galerie Steph

The Korean artist painstakingly solders thin copper wires into simple but intricate motifs such as pots, flowers, fish and leaves.

Joan Vennum: The Space Around Us

3 May-23 Jun Sundaram Tagore

The New York-based artist portrays the illusion of limitless space in her paintings, as it appears both in her imagination and in the natural world.

ZERO: The Anthology of the Abysmal

10-26 May

New works from the local street artist (also part of RSCLS). See Cheat Sheet.

Chan Hampe Galleries @ Raffles Hotel #01-20/21 Raffles Hotel Arcade, 328 North Bridge Rd (6338 1962, www.chanhampegalleries.com). City Hall. Daily 11am-7pm.

John Clang: Being Together – Family & Portraits

Until 26 May

The final month to catch this museum show, with 90 works from the local photographer, all centred on the theme of family.

National Museum of Singapore 93 Stamford Rd (6332 3659, www.nationalmuseum.sg). Bras Basah. Daily 10am-6pm. $11; students & seniors $5. Free admission for Singapore citizens and PRs from 18 May.

Max Bashev: Special Thanks To...

Until 27 May

The Moscow-born artist takes a selection of classical masterpieces and repaints them to incorporate present-day social issues.

11.12 Gallery #04-02, 36 Armenian St (6636 7738, www.11-12gallery.com). City Hall. Mon-Sat noon-7pm.

New Waves, Korea

9-29 May

Contemporary Korean artists Kim Kun Ju, Sang Taek Oh and Sung Chul Hong explore societal issues through various media.

TAKSU Singapore #01-72 Workloft@ Chip Bee, 43 Jln Merah Saga (6476 4788, www.taksu.com). Holland Village. Tue-Sat 10am-7pm; Sun noon-6pm.

The Unusual Suspects

Until 30 May

Melding street style photography, fashion and art, this exhibition allows photographers (such as StreetPeek and Sartorial Daily) to collaborate with illustrators (Fadedcrimson and MessyMsx) to create mixed media works.

Mad Nest 378/380 East Coast Rd (6348 6861, www.madnest.sg). Take a taxi. Mon-Fri 4pm-1am; Sat & Sun 11am-1am.

Tim Wakefield: Soundwaves

Until 31 May

By using digital technology, the British artist expresses some of the world's most iconic music – like tracks by ABBA and The Clash – as soundwave patterns on canvas, with a line of lyric written and signed by the musicians.

Icon Gallery 476 River Valley Rd (6735 4550, www.icongallery.sg). Clarke Quay. Tue-Sat 10.30am-6.30pm; Sun 11am-5pm.

WE ARE FAMILY
Don't miss John Clang's 'Being Together' at the National Museum before it closes on 26 May

Art